So ABCs it turns out vegas is not vegas. Chat in it's infinite wisdom does _not_ have a history off option for rooms. That's right. Everything kept forever or until garbage collected which I think for rooms with no activity is 28 days? Nope I lied, it's forever

We need to go thru a convoluted set of steps to make a history off group chat in old classic hangouts and then use that here - that's the only way

I got 7 lengthy emails last week from an individual I have not worked with in 6 months. "New information to add to your peer review".
